OBITUARY.

Mrs. Margaret Hooks.
Mrs. Margaret Hooks, aged 55, died at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Herbert W. Clark, South Coventry, on Sunday afternoon, as the result of apoplexy. Mrs. Hooks was a resident of this city, where she had many friends, up to last spring, when with the family of Mr. Clark, with whom she made her home, she moved to South Coventry. There survive two daughters, Mrs. James L. Wilson of Glen Falls, N. Y., and Mrs. Herbert W. Clark, and five grandchildren.

MINUTE MEN

Give Their Private Assembly—Elaborate Social Affair.

The third private assembly given under the auspices of The Minute Men, in Washburn hall, Monday evening, was attended by about fifty couples and proved to be one of the most elaborate social affairs recently held. The hall was handsomely decorated with various symbols of the season, and the Halloween effect produced by P. D. Donofue, was worthy of the compliments bestowed upon it. A short concert was rendered by Helen's orchestra, as follows: March, The Minute Men; Shamrock Song Successes; Silver Sleigh Bells.

The order of dances comprised sixteen numbers. The first was in charge of William Smith, assisted by T. Frank Cunningham, Benjamin T. Murphy, James F. Sullivan and D. Clifford Carey.

Mrs. P. D. Donofue, Mrs. James F. Sheen and Mrs. Michael E. Donovan were the patronesses.

Refreshments were served at Intermission by Caterer E. L. Prince.

TEN SHARES OF STOCK

Presented South Windham Church by the Hon. Guilford Smith.

Hon. Guilford Smith's philanthropy is again made apparent by his latest gift of ten shares of the stock of the Windham National bank of this city to the society of the church at South Windham, where he and wife reside. The par value of the stock is $100, which, therefore, apparently makes an endowment of $1,000 for the church, in reality it is considerably more, as the stock is appraised by the state board of equalization at $162 each, but even at that the stock cannot be bought at the figure named.

Monday morning Mr. Smith transferred the stock to the South Windham Ecclesiastical society. The donor has on many occasions substantially assisted the same society and gave them the land on which the present church is located, and he, together with Mrs. Smith, largely contributed to the fund that made the erection of the church a possibility.

This is but another instance of Mr. Smith's interest in the affairs of the town and church, and the fact that his many gifts to various institutions and charities is appreciated by the citizens in general and particularly by those vitally connected with the different organizations benefited.

Freight Strike Affects Local Business Men.

The tie-up of the drivers and express handlers in New York is having its effect upon local merchants. Monday morning but three packages were received here by express, when under ordinary conditions there is at least a half car load of such matter. Local merchants are continually complaining of the arrival of goods ordered shipped by express, and hope for an early adjustment with the strikers.
